

Rain by Lauria – Lyrics

Let the rain wash it away
Let it clear the pain from my face
Let the rain wash it away
Let me come back the other side
A little more brave

Woke up at 2 am again
With clouds on my mind
It hurts to keep my eyes open
But I can't stand the dark
I wanna be held
And hear "it's okay"
Lie to me please
Like I lie to myself everyday
Goddamn
I lost the point somehow
But for a minute now
I'll be brave and I'll fight
Through the cries of the sky
That's a vow

Let the rain wash it away
Let it clear the pain from my face
Let the rain wash it away
Let me come back the other side
A little more brave

Let the rain wash it away
Let it clear the pain from my face

Let the rain wash it away
Let me come back the other side
A little more brave

The flames of my darkness
Won't burn me today
Rain on me
I'm not hopeless
I'll bend but don't let me break
The flames from my darkness
Won't burn me today
Rain on me
I'm not hopeless
I'll bend but won't let myself break

Let the rain
Make me brave
Let the rain
Oh
Let the rain
