

About it – Lauria featuring J.Sol

Hold on to your flowers
Hold on to all trophies
They'll never give you power
But you'll feel less lonely
Perfume your demons
Make them look pretty
Seems it's the only way to handle their company
I'll take a pill, take a pill, take a pill
Numbing my feelings
I'll take a pill, take a pill, take a pill
Don't remember the reason
I know it's me, it comes to me
To deal with this
It's all of me, takes over me
Can't deal with this

Don't wanna fight it
When I get emotional I cannot fight it
Got me losing my attention, can't ignore it
And that's about it, that's about it
About it yeah
And now I'm falling
Losing sleep, overthinking and time is rolling
Yeah
And that's about it
Got me breaking safe lines when I dive in

Wiping away grey tears
Mascara running
I hear voices in here
My demons talking
Get high and I go low
Will I survive? Don't know
Feeling like in a cage
Who will let me go?

Don't wanna fight it
When I get emotional I cannot fight it
Got me losing my attention, can't ignore it
And that's about it, that's about it
About it yeah
And now I'm falling
Losing sleep, overthinking and time is rolling
Yeah
And that's about it

Got me breaking safe lines when I dive in

It's within me
Not tryna fight myself right now but it is clearly
Holding me back from tryna get to the real me
Or is it really
A part of me that reside somewhere underneath me
A scary feeling
Is it God or a demon my mind is nearing
Can't feel my mind
This pill is bout to do the healing
Can't stop this crying I just keep on overthinking
Overthinking

I need some sleep, about a week
Of the drama that I started
Cause this seems like a party
My emotions run deep
My dreams, they speak
Telling me that I'm vicious and my thoughts are malicious
But I swear I'm surviving this high that I'm riding
I wont ever be stopped
I'm cruising to my spot
The place where it started
My thoughts are discarded
These pills got me weak
But just know I'm about it

Ouh I don't wanna fight it
Now I'm falling
Oh
I'm about it yeah
